

Local Advisory Board members – University Ulm

Pfarrerinnen Ulrike Berlin

Ulrike Berlin is a protestant pastor by profession and is working in the clinic pastoral care team at the district hospital in Günzburg.

District Counsellor
Stephanie Denzler

Stephanie Denzler is lawyer by profession and has been active as local politician (CSU) for several years. She is the deputy leader of the parliamentary group in the district conference and since 2013 she is District Councilor for the Bavarian district of Swabia. Among various other functions she is also an administrative councilor for the district clinics Swabia and is deputy member of the Social and Psychiatric Committee. is involved in the special purpose association of St. Camillus, a hospital that cares for people with disabilities who have a mental illness.

Marion Heß

Marion Heß is a psychiatric nurse and works at the district hospital Kaufbeuren on a psychotherapy ward. She is DBT-Co-Therapist for Nursing, Trauma Care Advisor and leads an outpatient skills group. Since 2013, she accompanies peer support workers during their training period.

Stefanie Mäckle

Stefanie Mäckle is a curative teacher by profession. She is in charge of the complementary independent partnership consultancy (EUTB) of Diakonie Neu-Ulm e.V. and advises - together with peers - people with disabilities and their families, as well as professionals who work with people with disabilities.

Wolfgang Mohr,
Dipl.-Psych.

Wolfgang Mohr is a psychologist by profession. He is the head of the social psychiatric service and the addiction outpatient clinic of the Caritas Association for the Diocese of Augsburg in Günzburg.

Hannes Müller

Hannes Müller is a professional psychiatric nurse and nursing manager of the Home Treatment department at the district hospital Günzburg.

Beate Ragnit

Beate Ragnit represents the interests of the families of people with mental illness. She is the 1st chairman of the Relatives Association of mentally ill (ApK) e.V. Augsburg.

Prof. Dr. Nicolas Rüschi

Nicolas Rüschi is Professor of Public Mental Health and consultant psychiatrist at the Department of Psychiatry II of the University of Ulm at BKH Günzburg. Among other things, he leads a home treatment team and supports the local advisory board.

Isabell Schick

Isabell Schick is the leader of a self-help group for mental health in Neu-Ulm and represents the interests of the mentally ill in the local advisory board. She is currently working as a Peer Support Worker and will continue to support our project as a mentor and trainer for future Peer Support Workers.

Alexandra Wietschorke

Alexandra Wietschorke heads the board office of the District Clinics Swabia and supports our project in the local advisory board as representative of the clinic management.

Pfarrer Max Ziegler

Max Ziegler is a catholic priest by profession and is working in the clinic pastoral care team at the district hospital in Günzburg.